

As well as the recommended reading list above, we have selected some of our other favourite groups of books:

Inclusive and Diverse books:

EYFS→ <https://www.booksfortopics.com/eyfs-diverse-inclusive>

KS1→ <https://www.booksfortopics.com/ks1-diverse-inclusive>

KS2 (Y3/4)→ <https://www.booksfortopics.com/lower-ks2-diverse-inclusive>

KS2 (Y5/6)→ <https://www.booksfortopics.com/upper-ks2-diverse-and-inclusive>

Age appropriate books to teach about black history:

<https://www.booksfortopics.com/post/black-british-history>

Story books with BAME characters:

<https://www.booksfortopics.com/bame-characters>

Picture books- not just for younger children:

KS2 (y3/4)→ <https://www.booksfortopics.com/lower-ks2-picture-books>

KS2 (y5/6)→ <https://www.booksfortopics.com/upper-ks2-picture-books>

Graphic Novels:

KS2→ <https://www.booksfortopics.com/upper-ks2-graphic-novels>

Books to support mental health and well-being:

<https://www.booksfortopics.com/mental-health>

Non-Fiction:

We also highly recommend the week junior, where the children can learn about what is going on in the world at their level, while also getting valuable non-fiction reading practice. Below you can also find a list linked to ages.

<https://www.booksfortopics.com/top-notch-non-fiction>

Poetry:

<https://www.booksfortopics.com/poetry>

Have a child who loves to read and has exhausted the 'normal'? This link shares new releases every month .

<https://www.booksfortopics.com/booksofthemoth>